

responsible GAMBLING

Y

{youth have control

gamble:

[gam•bul]

{verb}

To take a risk, usually involving the loss of something valuable on the outcome of the chance.

1. he started to gamble more often bet, place/lay a bet on something, stake money on something, back the horses, play cards, play the pokies.

2. investors are gambling that the British pound will fall take a chance, take a risk; stick one's neck out, go out on a limb.

you have control...

{raising awareness of responsible gambling for youth}